

The Legacy of Family Hurt

How to free yourself from mental and physical patterns that run in the family and prevent passing them on to your children

July 30 in Emmaus, PA

- Learn how the legacy of family hurt, grief, and ailments can be contagious
- Learn how to break out of old patterns of behaviors that run in the family
- Learn in group exercises what cross generational burden you took on
- Learn to reclaim your own potentials through effective visualizations

This all day workshop by Marion Boon is designed not only for the layman seeking answers but also for the healing professional from all disciplines. It is a unique opportunity to expand your spiritual horizon and is particularly useful for energy healers. Marion Boon, a Dutch regressionist who is in demand across the world for her therapy and teaching, is coming to the Lehigh Valley for this workshop. She studied with the leaders in the field including Netherton, Woolger, Newton, TenDam, Wilber and Weiss. Marion is co-founder of the European Association for Regression Therapy (EARTH) and also the World Congress for Regression Therapy (WCRT). A lead trainer in the Netherlands TASSO Institute (www.tasso.nl/english) Marion teaches across the globe in four languages. She has taught and conducted workshops in the United States, Russia, India, Brazil, and across Europe. Her approach is dynamic, fascinating, illuminating and useful to all who are interested in personal and professional growth.

This workshop is being hosted by Annelie Shultz, M.A., local counselor and certified transpersonal hypnotherapist.
